

Sussex County Technical School

Daily Bulletin

April 16, 2024

- Did you know that approximately 29,000 units of red blood cells are needed every day in the U. S.? The National Technical Honor Society will be hosting a Blood Drive tomorrow from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the McNeice Auditorium. Registration for Blood Drive will occur during lunch periods. Please sign up! One donation can help save more than one life. (4/17)
- Attention Junior and Seniors: Prom bids are currently on sale and will be sold through Friday, April 26th during all lunch periods. Cost is $110 per person which can be paid in cash, check made payable to SCTS, or by using shares. (4/26)
- The Sussex Technical School Education Foundation is collecting gently used solar eclipse glasses. The solar eclipse glasses will be reused and recycled for the next upcoming eclipse and sent to schools within the eclipse path. Solar eclipse glasses can be dropped off at Mrs. Hering in room 504. The final day to drop off solar eclipse glasses is May 1st. (5/1)
- Are you interested in a job but are fearful of the interview process? Or would you just like to brush up on your interviewing/customer service skills? Sussex Borough Community and Cultural Center is hosting a free “Legendary Customer Service Training” for teens ages 14 to 18 years old. Please see the posting on the job board outside of Jr. Cosmo. If you’re interested, see Ms. Thomas in room 102 to scan the QR code to register. (5/3)
- The Sussex Tech Athletic Department is pleased to announce that once again this year, we will be offering free sports physical examinations to students interested in participating in a sport next school year. The school physician will be on campus on May 6th, May 16th and June 5th to see students throughout the school day. This is a great way to make sure you have clearance for the entire 2024-2025 school year! Please see Mrs. Coyle in the main office for more information.
- Attention Class of 2025: Rod Bolten Photography will be onsite on May 21st, May 22nd and May 23rd to take senior yearbook pictures. Please visit the sussextech.org website under News and Announcements for more information and to schedule your appointment.

Thank you and have a nice day!
