

Sussex County Technical School

Daily Bulletin November 21, 2023

- It's Tech Turkey Time! Today (during lunch periods) is the last day to determine which teacher will be crowned the 2023 Tech Turkey. It only costs 25 cents or 5 for a dollar, to put a feather on your favorite teacher and 50 cents to move a feather from one teacher to another. Tomorrow, the teacher with the most feathers will be the Tech Turkey. All proceeds will go to our local food pantry. (11/21)
- Come see Theatre Arts Shop's Production of One Stoplight Town, tonight at 6:30 pm in the Auditorium. The $5 suggested donation benefits the Drama Club. (11/21)
- There will be a Key Club meeting after school today. New members are welcome. Any member who cannot attend the meeting should email Mrs. Lynch. (11/21)
- Cross Country uniforms are due back to Coach Re no later than tomorrow. Uniforms should be washed and cleaned. Thank you. (11/22)
- SCTS Student Council is proud to present the online Mustang Apparel Store. The online store is sponsored by Fan Cloth. Items are customizable and will be shipped right to your door. Shipping is $9.95, and the sale ends on Wednesday. The link to the online store can be found in your school email or a flyer located around the school. Check your SCTS News Boards. (11/22)
- SCTS Student Council is proud to partner with Project Self-Sufficiency this holiday season and help local families in need. SCTS Student Council will be setting up a toy drive within Sussex Tech. Project Self-Sufficiency is happy to accept gifts for infants, young children, and teens. Student Council Members have placed collection boxes in each homeroom. The homeroom with the most donations will win donuts and hot chocolate compliments of the Student Council. Donations will be picked up by Project Self-Sufficiency on Monday, December 12th. For more information, please check your school email. (11/22)
- Winter Cheerleading tryouts will be held on Monday 11/27 and Tuesday 11/28. If you are interested in trying out, please make sure you are registered for Winter cheer and have an updated physical on file. If you have any questions, please see Ms. Shababb in Guidance. (11/27)
- ATTENTION ALL SKIERS AND SNOWBOARDERS: Any student interesting in the Sussex Tech Ski & Snowboard Club, please see Mrs. Lynch in Room 201 or email Mrs. Lynch for a packet and purchase instructions. Mountain Creek is offering a limited amount of discount passes for the after-school program and passes will be on a first come, first serve basis. November 29th is the last day to purchase passes. * Good news! There WILL be transportation for the Ski and Snowboard Club from Sussex Tech to Mountain Creek this year. You must see Mrs. Lynch for a permission slip to take the bus. (11/29)
- Looking for a delicious snack after school? The Key Club will be having a Bake Sale outside of Junior Cosmo and outside of the Student Center immediately after school each day on Tuesday, November 28th, Wednesday November 29th, and Thursday November 30th. Stop by and grab a treat for the ride home. (11/30)

- Do you have a sibling that is interested in Sussex Tech? Do you know a county 7th or 8th grader that would like to come here to try a program? We are offering a program called Breaking Barriers that has females come to Tech to try out a profession that is typically male dominated. The next session is December 1st for auto, diesel and architecture. (12/1)
- The Student Center's annual Shop Volleyball Tournament for juniors and seniors is happening on December 14th and 15th during periods 7-9. Shop teachers, make sure your rosters and participation forms are in by Thursday, November 30th! (12/15)
- If you are interested in SkillsUSA, you must hand in a completed contract and competition fee to Mr. McCarthy or Mrs. Leek by Friday, December 15. No exceptions. (12/15)
- Yearbooks are now on sale. Please visit www.jostensyearbooks.com to reserve your copy. Seniors wishing to use shares must purchase their book online and then bring a receipt to their class advisers for reimbursement. The deadline to order yearbooks is December 22nd. Extra yearbooks will not be ordered, the only way to guarantee a book in June is to order online. (12/22)

Thank you and have a nice day!
