

Sussex County Technical School

Daily Bulletin
November 29, 2023

- ATTENTION ALL SKIERS AND SNOWBOARDERS: Any student interesting in the Sussex Tech Ski & Snowboard Club, please see Mrs. Lynch in Room 201 or email Mrs. Lynch for a packet and purchase instructions. Mountain Creek is offering a limited amount of discount passes for the after-school program and passes will be on a first come, first serve basis. Today is the last day to purchase passes. * Good news! There WILL be transportation for the Ski and Snowboard Club from Sussex Tech to Mountain Creek this year. You must see Mrs. Lynch for a permission slip to take the bus. (11/29)
- Looking for a delicious snack after school? The Key Club will be having a Bake Sale outside of Junior Cosmo and outside of the Student Center immediately after school today and tomorrow. Stop by and grab a treat for the ride home. (11/30)
- Do you have a sibling that is interested in Sussex Tech? Do you know a county 7th or 8th grader that would like to come here to try a program? We are offering a program called Breaking Barriers that has females come to Tech to try out a profession that is typically male dominated. The next session is December 1st for auto, diesel and architecture. (12/1)
- There will be a Key Club meeting on Monday, December 4th in room 201 at 2:30. (12/4)
- SCTS Student Council is proud to partner with Project Self-Sufficiency this holiday season and help local families in need. SCTS Student Council will be setting up a toy drive within Sussex Tech. Project Self-Sufficiency is happy to accept gifts for infants, young children, and teens. Student Council Members have placed collection boxes in each homeroom. The homeroom with the most donations will win donuts and hot chocolate complimentary from the Student Council. Donations will be picked up by Project Self-Sufficiency on Monday, December 11th. For more information, please check your school email. (12/4)
- There will be a Newspaper Club meeting on Tuesday, December 5th in room 140 at 2:30. (12/5)
- Ms. Re's book club will be reading the science fiction thriller, Recursion, by Blake Crouch. If you are interested in reading the novel, stop by Ms. Re's room 501, or join the Google Classroom, 45jikyq. (12/5)
- The Student Center's annual Shop Volleyball Tournament for juniors and seniors is happening on December 14th and 15th during periods 7-9. Shop teachers, make sure your rosters and participation forms are in by Thursday, November 30th! (12/15)
- If you are interested in SkillsUSA, you must hand in a completed contract and competition fee to Mr. McCarthy or Mrs. Leek by Friday, December 15. No exceptions. (12/15)
- The Key Club will be selling ribbons during lunches for our annual "Tree of Life" fundraiser. All proceeds will benefit the St. Jude Research Hospital. Please consider purchasing a ribbon to be placed on the tree in the main hallway in memory of someone or simply as a donation. See any Key Club member for an order form or see Mrs. Lynch in room 201. (12/21)
- Yearbooks are now on sale. Please visit www.jostensyearbooks.com to reserve your copy. Seniors wishing to use shares must purchase their book online and then bring a receipt to their class advisers for reimbursement. The deadline to order yearbooks is December 22nd. Extra yearbooks will not be ordered, the only way to guarantee a book in June is to order online. (12/22)

Thank you and have a nice day!
