HOMETOWN: Sparta

Madison continues to play a pivotal role in our team's success not only because of her production on the field but her ability to support her teammates and hold herself accountable. Madison currently has 18 hits on the season with a batting average of .391 and a slugging percentage of .587. Madison also leads the team with 25 RBIs.

Madison is committed to her academics as well as her involvement in National Honor Society, National Technical Honor Society and Key Club. It has been a privilege watching Madison grow as a student athlete the past three seasons. She is passionate and willing to work as a team player to accomplish her goals.

Madison is a strong asset to our team - we will miss her next year in our line up!
